1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the specification,

                   “October 29, 2001”.

In the claims,

Claim 1,     Line 7, “of” has been changed to - -of:- -.

Line 39, “cental” has been changed to - -central- -.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Regarding claim 1, the prior art does not teach or suggest snapping the first piece into the second piece in a fixed position by moving one of the pieces in a direction of travel normal to the central section of the wire member such that the clip tab on each of the pieces each slide into one of the openings on the other of the pieces and snap into the one of said openings such that the clip tabs are spaced apart and alternate along a length of the central section such that the clip tab on the first piece extends in a first direction laterally past the central section, the clip tab on the second piece extends in a second direction opposite the first direction laterally past the central section, and the end of the tab on the first piece is on a first side of the central section and the tab on the second piece is on a second side of the central section, the first side being opposite the second side, a portion of the central section nests in the arcuate groove, and the first and second pieces circumscribe the central section, in combination with the other claimed limitations; Regarding claim 2, the prior art does not teach or suggest each identical piece including at least first and second arcuate grooves spaced apart and each shaped to receive a different portion of the central section of the wire member such that each of the different portions of the central section nests in one of the grooves, and the arcuate grooves of the first piece alternate along the central section with the arcuate grooves of the second piece, the arcuate grooves of the first piece contacting a first side of the central section opposite a second side of the central section contacted by the arcuate grooves of the second piece, in combination with the other claimed limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
